Cyclist Dies; Child Hurt In Traffic

Vehicle Collides With Car

Girl Struck By Auto

A 28-year-old Pennsylvania railroad engineer was killed and a four-year-old girl was seriously injured in separate traffic accidents yesterday afternoon in the city area.

Injured in an automobile-motorcycle accident near Arlin field, Bernard Joseph Weber, 1051 West Fourth street, died en route to General hospital.

Josette Walker, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Walker, 315 Reed street suffered head injuries when struck by a car driven by Mrs. Patsy Fay Taylor, 49, of 104 West First street. The child is in General hospital.

State highway patrolmen said Weber suffered a skull fracture when his motorcycle collided with a car driven by Walter E. Larimore, 691 Manchester road. The accident occurred about 1:45 p. m., on U. S. Route 30-N, a short distance from Weber's home.

Weber was Richland county's fourth traffic fatality of the year, as compared with two at this time last year.

TRIED TO PASS

Larimore told patrolmen the cyclist was weaving "all over the road" in front of him and that he followed Weber for some distance, afraid to pass him. As Larimore finally pulled out to pass the cycle, according to patrolmen, Weber turned sharply to the left and into the right front fender of Larimore's car.

Born in Warsaw, June 5, 1920, Weber came to Mansfield last November.

Surviving are his wife, Helen Breckler Weber; two daughters, Patsy Lou and Peggy Ann; and his mother, Mrs. Frances Weber of Danville.

The body, now at the Finefrock funeral home, will be taken to Danville today where funeral services will be held Monday morning at St. Luke's Catholic church. The body will be taken to the mother's home where friends may call. Burial will be in St. Luke's cemetery.

The Walker child, who was struck as she crossed Springmill street near her home, was reported in "good condition" today in General hospital. The little girl had been visiting at the home of a playmate nearby.

Police said the child was struck at 3:45 p. m., approximately 44 feet west of Reed street. Mrs. Taylor told police the child darted in front of her auto.

Asks Death For 'Spies'

SOFIA —(U.P.)— The death penalty was demanded today for all four leading defendants among the 15 Protestant clergymen on trial for treason, espionage and black market activities.

The four defendants are the heads of the United Evangelical, Methodist, Baptist and Pentecost churches in Bulgaria.

Prosecutor Dimiter Georgiev coupled his demand for the death penalty with a thundering denunciation of the United States, which he declared was attempting to incite a new war against the Soviet union. Georgiev spoke for two and one half hours.

Sentences are expected to be announced Monday. If the four church leaders are condemned, they will probably be put to death by hanging.

Pyramids Fleecing 'Suckers'

COLUMBUS—(AP)—Police—describing "Pyramid club" members as "suckers"—estimated today the newest version of the old chain-letter game had cost Columbus residents a million dollars in the last two weeks.

The vice squad sought yesterday to curtail "club" activities, termed a "racket" by Detective Lieutenant B. P. Smith.

He said there are about 100 "clubs" to which thousands of Columbus residents have donated one dollar each, hoping to receive more than $2,000 in return.

Police Chief Frank L. Harrison said the "clubs" are similar to the chain letter game, but participants are not subject to the same prosecution.

When someone enters a chain letter game, he said, that person is subject to federal arrest for promoting a game of chance through the mails.

SUBJECT TO ARREST

The "Pyramid clubs" are conducted in private homes and nothing is sent through the mails the chief added.

Police said perons at whose homes the "club" meetings are held may be arrested for promoting a game of chance and those who attend meetings and donate dollars are open to gambling charges.

Lt. Smith, the vice squad chief, explained the operation of the "Pyramid clubs" this way:

Each prospective new club member is told he will receive a maximum of $2,048 at the end of 12 days if he donates $1.

Each new member then is required to find two additional new members within 24 hours, in time for the next meeting.

After these two new members have donated, each has to get two more members.

Smith said the process goes on until "the potential market for suckers has been exhausted."

Mansfielder Wins Parole

Served 21 Years In Knife Slaying

A 57-year-old man who has spent the last 21 years in prison on conviction of first-degree murder will be paroled May 20. The man is Arthur Gray, convicted of first degree murder in the death by stabbing of George Williams, 40, on Sept. 23, 1927.

The stabbing occurred at the corner of East Sixth street and Franklin avenue, and resulted from an argument over 30 cents following a dice game.

A first-degree murder conviction with a recommendation of mercy by a Richland county Common Pleas court resulted in a sentence of life imprisonment in the penitentiary on Nov. 16, 1927.

Thomas J. Herbert, while governor, last Jan. 8, commuted the charge to second-degree murder, on a recommendation of the state pardon and parole board, permitting a parole. Gray is at the London Prison farm.

The board granted paroles to 14 other inmates of the prison farm and the penitentiary under sentence for second degree murder and approved paroles for 57 inmates of the Mansfield Reformatory.

Granted paroles from the Reformatory were Fremont Gardner, sentenced to one to seven years from Richland county on April 27 on conviction of grand larceny, and Charles Jenkins, sentenced from Ashland county, on conviction of grand larceny.

Four Firemen Die In Flames

CHARLESTON, W. Va. — (AP) — Four firemen were trapped and believed dead early today in a $500,000 fire which broke out in Woolworth's store in the heart of the retail district.

Believed dead are identifed as Frank Sharp, Richard McCormick, Freddie Summers and Frank Miller.

They and the eight injured firemen were caught in the basement when part of a floor fell in.

New Labor Bill Goes To Senate

Committee OK's T-H Repealer

WASHINGTON — (INS) — The Senate Labor committee by a straight party vote of eight to five today formally approved the administration's Taft-Hartley repeal bill.

The committee voted after ruling out Republican efforts to offer amendments.

Sen. Taft (R) Ohio, called the majority action "the most high handed procedure any committee has ever engaged in since I have been a member of the Senate."

Other Republicans termed the majority refusal to even consider other amendments "shocking."

Chairman Thomas (D) Utah, calmly told newsmen that two Republican amendments were "ruled out of order on technicalities."

Taft said that Thomas rejected his proposal regarding anti-communist affidavits and an amendment by Sen. Morse (R) Ore., affecting national emergency strikes.

BACKS TRUMAN

The Thomas bill approved today carries out President Truman's proposals for a new labor law by repealing the Taft-Hartley act and re-enacting the Wagner act.

The new bill would carry amendments which ban jurisdictional strikes and "unjustified" secondary boycotts, substitutes a cooling-off procedure for the emergency strike injunction, and puts the conciliation service back in the Labor department.

Taft was clearly angry when he challenged the majority action during a news conference following a committee meeting in which Republican senators, one by one, denounced the Democratic procedure.

The GOP leader said it was "contrary" to a promise by Sen. Pepper (D) Fla., on the Senate floor that all senators would have the right to offer amendments in committee.

Taft said he proposed that time be given next week to consider amendments and that final action be taken by March 15.

Wage Bill Faces Test

WASHINGTON —(INS)—President Truman's labor program faced its first major test in Congress today with the House Labor committee acting on minimum wage legislation.

Administration supporters said a decision has been reached on compromise legislation which carries out the major points in the President's program, including a 75-cent hourly wage.

They added, however, that several southern members were not in agreement and there was some question whether the administration could obtain sufficient votes to bring out the bill.

Rep. Lesinski (D) Mich., called a meeting of his committee, the first in more than a week, to consider the compromise measure on which a majority of the Democratic members reached agreement after conferring with Labor Secretary Tobin.

Marry After Five-Minute Courtship

DAYTON — (INS) — Evangeline Serra, 15-year-old Houston, Texas, girl, wasn't sure today who her husband was but assured authorities she "loved him whoever he is."

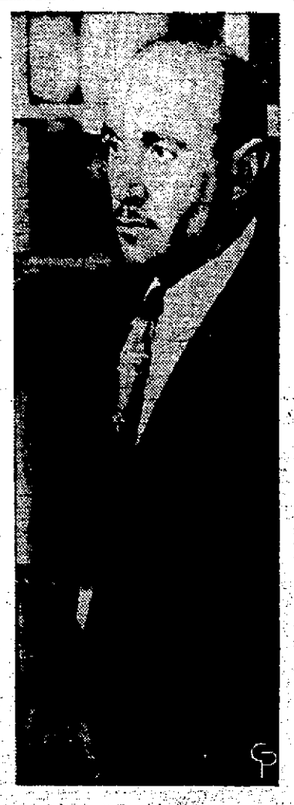
The girl's husband, who married her after a five-minute courtship in the New Mexico desert, was being brought to Wright-Patterson field, Dayton, for questioning.

Staff Sgt. E. C. Alford, jr., of Brownwood, Texas, stationed at the Dayton field, was assured he was not a bridegroom because he was in Richmond, Virginia, Feb. 9 when a soldier used his name and married the girl.

Esther M. Henne . . . "Afraid"

Jane Thompson . . . died in Spain.

Mrs. Pearl Wilson . . . "Doubts"



Raymond Fernandez behind bars.

CHAIR OR LIFE?—Whether Michigan, which has no capital punishment, will surrender slick Raymond Fernandez and his partner, fat Mrs. Martha Beck, to New York, which does, is still undecided as Grand Rapids authorities delve further into the past of the gruesome "lonely hearts" case. In addition to admitting slaying a Grand Rapids widow and her daughter, plus bludgeon strangling of Mrs. Janet Fay, Albany, N. Y., widow, police wonder about Jane Thompson, who went to Spain in 1947 with Fernandez and was reported by him to have died there of a heart ailment. But her mother, Mrs. Pearl Wilson, Wilmington, N. C., has "doubts and suspicions." Another who feels the same way is Esther Henne, 41, school for feebleminded teacher at Royersford, Pa., who says she married Fernandez a year ago, became "afraid" and left him a month later after he asked for her insurance policy.—(International)

Peace, It's Wonderful

Motorcyclists Vow Bop-Spit-Sput End

The whr-r-r-r-r bop-spit-sput of motorcycles will be no more—if members of the Motorcycle club have their way.

Club members announced today they aim to help bring about the elimination of open exhaust pipes on motorcycles.

The 30 members of the club have all signed 100 per cent pledges to use approved mufflers on their motorcycles, W. R. Simms, president of the club, said.

Police Chief Jesse J. Schwab commended club members for their action, thanking them for their part in the drive for safe, quiet motorcycle riding.

Simms said the club took the pledge for quiet motorcycle riding in cooperation with the current nation-wide anti-noise campaign of the American Motorcycling magazine. The magazine is the official publication of the American Motorcycle association, of which the Mansfield club is a member.

"We want the citizens of Mansfield to realize," Simms said, "that motorcycling is a sane and safe sport. Naturally, we can control only those riders who are members of our club, but we want to encourage all motorcyclists to ride quietly so that motorcycling can grow in popularity."

Simms said people who hear a cycle with a straight pipe think that motorcycling is a dangerous sport because "they associate noise with danger."

'Actually, a cycle is safer than a car," he continued, "because a motorcycle gives the rider more maneuverability, quick get away for tight spots and all-around vision. You never hear of anyone falling asleep on a motorcycle, either."

He said that last year more than 20 million miles were covered by AMA motorcycle riders, but the accident rate was only slightly greater than in 1945 when "a mere 17 million miles were covered," he said.

Empire Tops Fund Quota

The Empire Steel corporation is the first major industry to exceed its quota in the 1949 Red Cross drive to raise $48,835 in Mansfield and Richland county, it was announced today by Glenn L. Bierly, campaign chairman.

The Empire plant raised $1,700 the second day of the campaign to exceed its quota of $1,695.

A total of $4,481 was reported this morning at campaign headquarters.

New groups added to the 100 per cent list are Zim's Neighborhood store, Wilma's Beauty shop, Ohio Textile Products, Irvin Machine company, J. M. Cousins, I. A. Barnett company, Flexible Conveyor company, Balyeat Bedding company, Schmidt Hardware and Toyland, M. and F. House of Plastics, the Book Shop, Ideal Billiards, Bakers dry cleaning, North Side market.

Mrs. Bess Augsburger, executive director, announced the national Red Cross has allocated $250,000 for relief of Navajo Indians in the blizzard area of the west.

RAIL CRASH KILLS NINE

BERLIN — (INS) Nine Germans were reported killed and 16 injured today in a train crash at Eisenach in the Soviet zone of Germany.

Two Killers Face Chair

New York Asks For Murder Pair

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH. — (UP) — Raymond Fernandez, the bald Casanova, and Mrs. Martha Beck, his fat paramour, sought today to avoid extradition to New York and the electric chair for their admitted "lonely heart" killings.

The 34-year-old Hawaiian-born Fernandez called from his cell for a lawyer, shouting, "I don't want to go to the chair in New York."

Sheriff Hugh M. Blacklock said the man had "the jitters" after learning that New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey had signed an extradition request for the couple.

Charles Hildebrandt of the Nassau county, N. Y., police brought the papers from Albany to Lansing, Mich., to be presented to Michigan Gov. G. Mennen Williams. The papers requested that the two be returned to Mineola, N. Y., to stand trial for the slaying of Mrs. Janet Fay, 50.

The 30-year-old Mrs. Beck broke down and cried in her cell when officers removed from her fingers the two engagement and three wedding rings which she admitted taking from the fingers of the two widows she helped kill.

Additional Power Seen For Johnson

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Louis A. Johnson, picked to head the quarrelsome military establishment, may be handed more authority than his predecessor had.

President Truman, who announced yesterday Johnson will replace Secretary of Defense Forrestal at the end of this month, is expected to ask Congress to give more power to the new defense chief.

Motorists Can't Keep New Tags On

Mansfield area motorists are wondering how to keep those wafer-thin 1949 auto license plates on their cars.

The tags went on sale only four days ago, but a number of car owners have reported trouble with them. Some tags have been ripped loose in the wind and lost.

The licenses, made of aluminum, are so thin the bolts used to attach them pull through the plate unless a large washer is used on each side. Some drivers are using metal frames to support the tags.

A few of the new tags have a criss-cross pattern in the aluminum to strengthen them a little.

Rural Mail Deliveries Moved Up

Speedier 5-Day Schedule Announced

Residents of the area west of Mansfield who have been receiving mail service by mounted delivery will get their mail about five hours earlier beginning Monday, C. L. Ford, acting postmaster, said today.

This more efficient mail service will be from Monday through Friday only at this time, Ford said. Saturday delivery will be at the regular hour.

Since the mounted delivery service was started on July 16, 1948, the carrier for the rural areas to the east and west of Mansfield has been servicing one area in the morning and the other area in the afternoon.

Additional trucks received by the post office have made it possible to split the route, and give both sections morning delivery, Ford said.

Many residents in the area west of the city have been receiving their mail as late as 5:30 p.m., Ford said. Beginning Monday every one should have his mail by 1 p.m., he said.

Harold Burkhart will service the west area and Allen Neal will carry the mail to residents of the east area.

Both routes are set up so that additional homes and areas can be serviced when they qualify for it Ford said.

As it now stands, the west route is serviced in about seven hours, while the east area takes about five hours, the acting postmaster explained. Both routes could be extended to eight-hour details.

'Sal's' Trial Nearly Ended

WASHINGTON — (INS) — The closing witness in the treason trial of "Axis Sally" is scheduled to take the stand today to present the last bit of evidence in her defense.

The witness is Johannes Schmidt-Hansen, once the German boss of "Sally"—Mildred E. Gillars. He was rushed to this country by air force plane to present last-minute testimony.

Miss Gillars claims that Schmidt-Hansen can support her story that she worked under "compulsion" when she beamed nazi propaganda to American troops and their folks at home. He is also expected to testify on her claim that she was forced to sign an "oath of allegiance" to Germany.

Hospital Staff Quits En Masse

CIRCLEVILLE — (INS) — The Circleville city council was in a quandary today over the resignation of the entire staff of the municipally operated Berger hospital, the only hospital in Pickaway county.

The staff of the completely filled 45-bed hospital handed in the resignations yesterday, effective March 12, after the council turned down a proposed wage increase.

Rejects Russian Offer

Danes Enter Alliance Talk

OSLO — (UP) — The Norwegian government, with the overwhelming support of parliament, rejected a proposed non-aggression treaty with Russia today and decided to join discussions on the proposed Atlantic pact.

The Norwegian decision was followed by an announcement of the Danish Foreign Relations committee of the Parliament which voted to send Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen to Washington to discuss possible Danish participation in the pact.

A Norwegian delegation was expected to leave for Washington within 10 days to join the United States, Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, Holland, Denmark and Luxembourg in discussing the proposed pact.

The government announced that a secret session of parliament which was held yesterday approved the twin decision by a vote of 118 to 11, with only the 11 communist members objecting.

TAKE FIRM STAND

Norway then explained its position to Russia in a firm note rejecting Russia's request for a non-aggression pact, which was made Feb. 5. The note was handed to the Soviet ambassador.

The Norwegian note informed Russia that Norway:

1. Intends to take part in discussions for a "mutually binding agreement built on the principle of solidarity and collective security."

2. "Desires to reiterate most categorically that it neither will take part in a policy with aggressive aims nor will it grant bases for foreign military forces on Norwegian territory so long as Norway is not attacked or subject to threats of attack."

3. Wants to preserve and strengthen the good neighbor relations between Norway and Russia.

4. Fails to see the need of a non-aggression pact with Russia because both countries, as members of United Nations, are pledged not to use force.

The note was handed to Soviet Ambassador Sergei Afanasev by Norwegian Foreign Minister Halvard M. Lange last night, after the secret session of parliament had approved the government's action.

3,200,000 Now Jobless

WASHINGTON — (INS) — The government reported today that unemployment in the United States reached a new post-war high last month with 3,200,000 Americans in the jobless ranks.

The Census bureau said that 550,000 persons were added to unemployment rolls last month largely as a result of "bad weather in certain sections of the country and by other seasonal developments."

The bureau added: "However, a continuation of the non-seasonal lay-offs noted last month probably accounted for a large part of the change. In spite of substantial increases in recent months, unemployment in February was still low relative to pre-war levels."

The bureau's announcement followed a report of the employment situation in January when 700,000 persons were added to the unemployed rolls.

See OK For Israel

LAKE SUCCESS —(AP)— Israel is likely to win Security council approval today in her bid for U.N. membership. This would virtually assure a seat for the Jewish state at the General assembly which opens April 5.

Bulletin . . .

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The House Banking committee today approved, 20 to 4, a compromise bill to extend rent controls for 15 months beyond March 31. Final action came after the committee, by a 16 to 9 vote, had defeated a "civil rights" amendment, and had approved a provision to prevent mass eviction of tenants. The measure will come up for action in the House next week.

'Little Blockade' Routs Russians

Reds Retaliate, Oust U. S. Grave Teams

FRANKFURT—(U.P.)— Eight members of the Soviet reparation mission drove out of their blockaded mansion at dawn today and headed for the Soviet zone border after Moscow finally gave them permission to leave.

In retaliation, Moscow ordered all American graves registration teams to get out of the Soviet zone of Germany and not come back. There were two teams totaling six men. All returned to Berlin late yesterday. Apparently their own men.

The blockaded Russians wasted no time once they heard from their superiors. They received the word last night and spent most of the night packing. Lights in the mansion were turned on again for their convenience.

At 6:27 a. m., some 46 hours after the American blockade was started, three sedans and two trucks bearing the Russians and their luggage sped out of the mansion's gate and zipped past waiting newsmen.

The convoy headed for Helmstedt, 250 miles away, the only legal border crossing point between the western and Soviet zones.

Two cars of the Soviet military mission to Frankfurt, which is still fully accredited, accompanied them as escort. Several American press cars trailed along behind.

Col. S. A. Wood, provost marshal of Frankfurt, said no American escort was provided for the Russians. The Soviet military mission escort was enough, he said.

Bitter Fight Looms In State Senate on Child Labor Bill

Age Limit Pegged at Fourteen

Tightens Present Regulating Law

COLUMBUS — (INS) — A bitter fight was presaged today by the introduction in the Ohio Senate of a bill barring children under 14 from "any gainful employment" and otherwise tightening the child labor laws.

The bill, introduced by Sens. Catherine Dobbs (D-Barberton) and Howard Metzenbaum (D-Cleveland) also sets a minimum age limit of 12 years for newsboys on regular routes.

The only other exemption in the bill for those under 14 is for occasional work on the home farm or in the home.

It was recalled that, two years ago, a then-Republican legislature passed the Kowalk bill which eased the restrictions on women and minors. The present measure would take up those liberalizations and also tighten other sections of the law.

The bill sets a 16-year minimum for employment in any manufacturing, mechanical or processing establishment. This particular provision, however, follows generally the Fair Labor Standards act and the laws in effect in 14 other states.

A limit also is set for children above 14 or 16 who work after school. No one under 16 may work more than three hours on a school day or more than 18 hours in a school week. Those 16 to 18 may work up to four hours a day and up to 24 hours a week.

Night or early morning work is strictly limited. The Kowalk act permits female minors to work late in some occupations, principally mercantile establishments.

The Dobbs-Metzenbaum bill, however, sets a 6 a. m.-to-10 p. m., limit for boys under 18 and girls under 21, and a 7 a. m.-to-6 p. m., limit for boys under 16 and girls under 18.

Boys under 18 and girls under 21 would not be permitted to work more than eight hours in any one day or more than 48 hours in any week.

The bill also prohibits the employment of any girl messengers — including telegraph messengers — under 21 years of age.

Movie Clock . . .

PARK — "The Fighting Sea Bees," 2:58, 6:25, and 9:52 p. m.; "Strawberry Roan," 1.30, 4:57, and 8:24 p. m.

OHIO — "Command Decision," 1:30, 3:34, 7:38, and 9:40 p. m.

RITZ — "Hard Guy," 2 37, 5:09, 7:41, and 10:13 p. m.; "Today I Hang," 1:30, 4.02, 6:34, and 9:06 p. m.

Bromfield Arouses Anger Of Southern Congressmen

WASHINGTON — (AP) —Louis Bromfield, Ohio novelist-farmer, advised the south yesterday to plow up its cotton and raise food crops.

"King cotton has injured the south more, economically and agriculturally, than anything else" he told the House Agriculture committee.

"Cotton agriculture in Georgia has done more damage than General Sherman ever did."

This brought shouts from Reps. Abernethy (D-Miss), Albert (D-Okla), Worley (D-Tex) and Pace (D-Ga)—all clamoring to ask the witness a question or two.

Chairman Cooley (D-NC), who wanted to ask a few himself, managed to calm them down until Bromfield could finish his statement.

Bromfield, testifying against proposed bills to repeal the federal taxes on oleomargarine, had a word for the American housewife.

"If two minutes spent in the kitchen coloring some margarine has become such a great burden," he declared, "all I can say is that the pioneer qualities of our ladies certainly have gone down the drain."

Pace led off the southern questioning of Bromfield, who consented to amend his earlier remarks. He said he meant erosion, often present when cotton is not properly farmed, has done the south more damage than General Sherman.

"Corn is just as bad," he added.

Other southern Democrats on the committee asked Bromfield for figures to support his claim that dropping taxes on margarine would greatly increase its production. He promised to supply them later.

Bromfield, who operates Malabar farm near Lucas, told the committee the margarine vs. butter argument is essentially one of "big business and tacit monopoly" against little business.

Promise Action On Reds

Stiff Controls To Be Readied

WASHINGTON — (UP) — Chairman John S. Wood (D-Ga) said today his House un-American activities committee will begin work soon on a strict communist control bill.

The announcement came as congressional leaders promised a crackdown on U. S. communists to protect the nation from sabotage.

The congressional activity was spurred by the pro-Soviet war pledge of U. S. communists William Z. Foster and Eugene Dennis. They said that in case of war between this country and Russia their party would work to "defeat the predatory war aims of American imperialism."

Wood said an un-American activities subcommittee will begin work on the communist-control bill "as soon as I can talk to members and select personnel."

SOUTH CONFIDENT

In other congressional developments:

Filibuster—Southerners were confident they could defeat an administration maneuver to choke off the Senate's anti-filibuster debate.

They think they can gain enough support from Republicans to override Democratic Leader Scott W. Lucas' planned move to bring the discussion to an early end. Sen. Russell B. Long (D-La) summed up the southerners' attitude when he said flatly: "We have it licked."

Gabriels Reply To Damage Suit

Edward M. Gabriel and Frederick R. Gabriel, of 409 West Fifth street, in separate answers filed in common pleas court, deny the allegations in a $4,000 suit charging assault.

The Gabriels ask that the suit be dismissed. The action was brought be Stephen E. Leslie, of 45 West Fifth street, who contended he was assaulted and beaten by the two last Christmas eve.

In another court action, a journal entry shows that a suit for $300 resulting from an accident, brought by George Dick, of Shelby, against the CCC Highway, Inc., has been settled, and the case dismissed at the defendant's costs.

Bitter Fight Looms In State Senate on Child Labor Bill

Age Limit Pegged at Fourteen

Tightens Present Regulating Law

COLUMBUS — (INS) — A bitter fight was presaged today by the introduction in the Ohio Senate of a bill barring children under 14 from "any gainful employment" and otherwise tightening the child labor laws.

The bill, introduced by Sens. Catherine Dobbs (D-Barberton) and Howard Metzenbaum (D-Cleveland) also sets a minimum age limit of 12 years for newsboys on regular routes.

The only other exemption in the bill for those under 14 is for occasional work on the home farm or in the home.

It was recalled that, two years ago, a then-Republican legislature passed the Kowalk bill which eased the restrictions on women and minors. The present measure would take up those liberalizations and also tighten other sections of the law.

The bill sets a 16-year minimum for employment in any manufacturing, mechanical or processing establishment. This particular provision, however, follows generally the Fair Labor Standards act and the laws in effect in 14 other states.

A limit also is set for children above 14 or 16 who work after school. No one under 16 may work more than three hours on a school day or more than 18 hours in a school week. Those 16 to 18 may work up to four hours a day and up to 24 hours a week.

Night or early morning work is strictly limited. The Kowalk act permits female minors to work late in some occupations, principally mercantile establishments.

The Dobbs-Metzenbaum bill, however, sets a 6 a. m.-to-10 p. m., limit for boys under 18 and girls under 21, and a 7 a. m.-to-6 p. m., limit for boys under 16 and girls under 18.

Boys under 18 and girls under 21 would not be permitted to work more than eight hours in any one day or more than 48 hours in any week.

The bill also prohibits the employment of any girl messengers — including telegraph messengers — under 21 years of age.

Bromfield Arouses Anger Of Southern Congressmen

WASHINGTON — (AP) —Louis Bromfield, Ohio novelist-farmer, advised the south yesterday to plow up its cotton and raise food crops.

"King cotton has injured the south more, economically and agriculturally, than anything else" he told the House Agriculture committee.

"Cotton agriculture in Georgia has done more damage than General Sherman ever did."

This brought shouts from Reps. Abernethy (D-Miss), Albert (D-Okla), Worley (D-Tex) and Pace (D-Ga)—all clamoring to ask the witness a question or two.

Chairman Cooley (D-NC), who wanted to ask a few himself, managed to calm them down until Bromfield could finish his statement.

Bromfield, testifying against proposed bills to repeal the federal taxes on oleomargarine, had a word for the American housewife.

"If two minutes spent in the kitchen coloring some margarine has become such a great burden," he declared, "all I can say is that the pioneer qualities of our ladies certainly have gone down the drain."

Pace led off the southern questioning of Bromfield, who consented to amend his earlier remarks. He said he meant erosion, often present when cotton is not properly farmed, has done the south more damage than General Sherman.

"Corn is just as bad," he added.

Other southern Democrats on the committee asked Bromfield for figures to support his claim that dropping taxes on margarine would greatly increase its production. He promised to supply them later.

Bromfield, who operates Malabar farm near Lucas, told the committee the margarine vs. butter argument is essentially one of "big business and tacit monopoly" against little business.

Promise Action On Reds

Stiff Controls To Be Readied

WASHINGTON — (UP) — Chairman John S. Wood (D-Ga) said today his House un-American activities committee will begin work soon on a strict communist control bill.

The announcement came as congressional leaders promised a crackdown on U. S. communists to protect the nation from sabotage.

The congressional activity was spurred by the pro-Soviet war pledge of U. S. communists William Z. Foster and Eugene Dennis. They said that in case of war between this country and Russia their party would work to "defeat the predatory war aims of American imperialism."

Wood said an un-American activities subcommittee will begin work on the communist-control bill "as soon as I can talk to members and select personnel."

SOUTH CONFIDENT

In other congressional developments:

Filibuster—Southerners were confident they could defeat an administration maneuver to choke off the Senate's anti-filibuster debate.

They think they can gain enough support from Republicans to override Democratic Leader Scott W. Lucas' planned move to bring the discussion to an early end. Sen. Russell B. Long (D-La) summed up the southerners' attitude when he said flatly: "We have it licked."

Gabriels Reply To Damage Suit

Edward M. Gabriel and Frederick R. Gabriel, of 409 West Fifth street, in separate answers filed in common pleas court, deny the allegations in a $4,000 suit charging assault.

The Gabriels ask that the suit be dismissed. The action was brought be Stephen E. Leslie, of 45 West Fifth street, who contended he was assaulted and beaten by the two last Christmas eve.

In another court action, a journal entry shows that a suit for $300 resulting from an accident, brought by George Dick, of Shelby, against the CCC Highway, Inc, has been settled, and the case dismissed at the defendant's costs.

$100 Missing

Mrs. Glenn Reed, 243 Park avenue drive, reported to police that five months ago she placed five $20 bills in an envelope and placed it in a chest of drawers and today when she looked for the money it was gone.

87-YEAR-OLD CARVER—C. W. Nelson sr, 87, of Neenah, Wis., who took up whittling 30 years ago, shows some of his work at a session of the World Hobby Exposition in Chicago.

Mayor J. B. Blackburn, of Fredericktown indicated foul play is suspected. He told Sheriff Salathiel Bumpus a snap fastener pocketbook the elder Stevens carried, and which usually contained a large amount of cash, has not been found.

Dr. J. R. Harmer, coroner, gave a verbal verdict at the time the bodies were found in a blood-spattered room that fighting resulted in their deaths but on the death certificate Dr. Harmer listed cause of death as suffocation.

The investigation continuance was demanded Tuesday by Mayor Blackburn. Sheriff Bumpus visited the death scene last night as he reopened his probe.

3 Officers Mark 20 Years With Force

It was 20 years ago today when three present members of the Mansfield police department accepted jobs as rookie patrolmen with the department.

The three, Capt. Paul Whipp, and Detectives Howard Schuck and F. Bruce Friday, became members of the department March 4, 1929. Claude Watts, who joined the department at the same time, resigned two years ago.

Detective Schuck served with the uniformed force until 1942 when he was transferred to a special investigation squad created during the war to prevent possible subversive activity.

He became a member of the regular detective force in 1944 and is its ranking member in years of service.

Detective Friday served with the uniformed force until 1944 when he was promoted to the detective squad.

Capt. Whipp was promoted to lieutenant Sept. 11, 1936 and attained his present rank of captain on Jan. 19, 1942.

GALION — A family of three was homeless today following a fire which destroyed their one room house on Dawsett road at the south edge of town. Fire Chief John Durtschi said an oil heating stove blast ripped out windows and blew off the roof before flames consumed the structure.

The house was rented by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nester and a daughter from a relative, M. M. Clowes, who resided next door. The Nesters now are making their home with the Clowes. No estimate of the damage was available, Chief Durtschi reported in saying there were no personal injuries in the blast and resulting fire.

Plan Defense Of Reynolds

Attorney Adolph Unger of Canton said today he probably would defend Bobbie Dale Reynolds, arrested in connection with a $57 unarmed robbery in Massillon.

Reynolds was released from the Mansfield reformatory Jan. 26 under a writ of habeas corpus issued by the Fifth district court of appeals, meeting in Mansfield.

The petition for the writ was filed by Attorney Unger. The youth's mother was the petitioner. The court found that Reynolds had been permitted to plead guilty in Stark county common pleas court to a charge of assault with intent to rob, although he had previously been adjudged incompetent in probate court there.

pleas court to a charge of assault with intent to rob, although he had previously bee nadjudged incompetent in probate court there.

The court ruled that Reynolds had been sentenced to one to 15 years without due process of law since he was not legally able to enter a plea of guilty.

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

PAGE FOUR — MANSFIELD, OHIO, FRIDAY, MARCH 4, 1949

When governments cease looking for new forms of taxation, it will be a sign that the millennium has come.

Just a moment please—don't dial that phone number until you look it up in the new directory . . . it may have been changed.

They're still talking about perfecting a "fool-proof" car, apparently not taking into account the extent to which some drivers can overcome obstacles to foolishness.

They Proclaim Allegiance To Russia

STATEMENTS by Communist party leaders in the United States that in the event of war they would support Russia rather than this country, where they enjoy the abundance of the democratic way of life is not at all surprising.

Nor is it unusual that they cloaked their treason in the usual Moscow-sired gobbledegook of "Wall Street war" and "imperialist aggression."

By now, most Americans—with the exception of a few lunatic liberals—know the communists for exactly what they are: full-fledged traitors to the form of government and the economic system which gives them sanctuary.

What has been surprising in the last few days' developments in the general tension between the U.S.A. and the U.S.S.R. is that Americans should stoop to Russian tactics in the blockading of eight members of the Soviet repatriation commission in Frankfurt.

It seems quite clear that the Russians no longer had any business in Frankfurt. Moscow, in characteristic communist fashion, saw a chance to cause trouble by delaying their recall.

By establishing a blockade around their house, the American authorities are paving the way to making martyrs of the unwanted eight. It would have seemed much simpler to escort them to the border of the Russian zone and say "Goodbye, gentlemen."

And that is exactly what should be done, too, with Moscow-serving communists in the United States.

Color Your Own Oleo, Senate Says

IT MAY finally be up to Ohio voters, after all, to decide whether or not the sale of colored oleomargarine shall be made legal in this state. Voting on an initiated bill, the state senate has split 15-15 on the subject, thus defeating the measure unless it is "reconsidered."

Dairy interests are expected to be even stronger in influencing votes in the lower house, and it will probably be "the voice of the people" that will eventually decide the issue.

Thirty states have legalized the sale of colored oleo, with Michigan and Tennessee as the most recent to join the procession. Congress is expected, at this session, to repeal federal taxes and license fees on oleo, which are obviously discriminatory, but it is up to states to decide about coloring the product.

Grave-Diggers' Strike Delays Burials

WHATEVER may be the views of different persons as to "strikes" and "the right to strike" a work stoppage by grave-diggers seems to jar the feelings of many people who are ordinarily in accord with legitimate objectives of labor organizations.

New York City is now in the midst of such an occurrence, with a report to the effect that burial of more than a thousand bodies has been delayed by a seven-weeks strike of CIO United Cemetery Workers who are demanding six days pay for five days work.

Highly regarded Cardinal Spellman, archbishop of New York, has taken action by calling upon physically fit seminary students to dig graves—ignoring taunts from picket-line strikers. He holds this to be "a work of mercy," rather than a matter to be left to decision by union leaders.

Refusal of workers to perform their customary tasks in connection with burying the dead may be included in the "right to strike," but it seems a strange place for adoption of this technique in enforcing demands.

Legal Profession To Be 'Surveyed'

LAWYERS will soon have a chance to learn how other people like being cross-examined and told that they cannot do something because some red-tape rule forbids. A Survey of the Legal Profession, financed jointly by the American Bar association and the Carnegie corporation, is working on a three-year project. This will see what lawyers do, how they are trained, and how to improve their service to society.

Lest the legal point of view prevail to the exclusion of the layman's, a non-lawyer advisory committee has been added, including the former undersecretary of state, Sumner Welles.

A Connecticut judge has ruled that calling a person a communist does not appear to be slanderous—but name-calling doesn't seem to accomplish much, either.

One worried reader inquires, "Are there too many people?" and an obvious answer would be that there are too many of some kinds.

Don't Look Now, But Isn't Someone Following You?

Raymond Moley's Analysis

Present Congress Compared With 1933

MARCH 4TH, formerly a milestone in our national march of time, is now just another day. But there is a special reason why we may pause for reflection on this 16th anniversary of the first Roosevelt inauguration.

Members of the administration, no doubt infected by the same cocky state of mind that characterizes the President's public utterances, are talking about "another Hundred Days." They mean that once more there is under way a great surge of reform such as characterized the unprecedented early weeks of the New Deal.

It is hard to see how they can find any parallel, for the cold facts are against them.

Their new Congress has been in session two months and nothing of importance has happened. Two months after March 4, 1933 a tremendous mass of legislation has been passed and more was ready for a final vote.

Congress met in extra session at noon on March 9th, 1933, received the President's request for emergency banking legislation and passed the accompanying bill before the day was over. The next day a drastic economy program went to the Hill and was enacted 10 days later.

From then on, for weeks, Congress counted the day lost when a new message calling for legislation or the news of new, sweeping executive orders did not reach it.

Among the March presidential demands which were enacted were the restoration of beer and wine, the Agricultural Adjustment Act, unemployment relief and federal supervision of investment securities. In April there followed proposals for farm mortgage legislation, the Tennessee Valley Authority, small homes mortgaged relief, emergency railroad legislation.

All these were passed either immediately or before Congress adjourned in June. More came in May and were passed. Washington had never seen and perhaps will never again see such expedition.

* * *

No Hurry This Time.

DESPITE the pleas of current majority leaders in Congress that things are really happening, the whole Truman program is about where it was two months ago.

His labor bill is facing decisive opposition and drastic revision. Demands for tax increases have been put on ice by Messrs. George and Doughton.

Civil rights legislation faces a paralyzing filibuster; housing legislation is only beginning its course; health legislation has been introduced but has only a remote chance; and various so-called anti-inflation measures are fading out in the light of lower prices.

The President, despite chipper and aggressive talk, is impotent in the face of congressional opposition and indifference. And, what is more, the golden early weeks that have always been the fruitful honeymoon of a newly elected President are slipping away.

Still confident in his newly discovered oratorical power, the President threatens to take his case to the country. That would be an onerous and rather desperate expedient.

It was one thing to swing through the states denouncing the 80th Congress. It will be quite another to preach a crusade against the 81st Congress.

Perhaps the basic difference between 1933 and 1949 is this: In 1933 there was only one way to go. Prices, production and confidence were at a low ebb. Upward and onward were the watchwords.

Now, despite outward expressions of confidence, the President and his advisers cannot set their direction because they do not and cannot know the prospective economic weather. The program that they are sponsoring was improvised in the heat of a campaign and in a period of unprecedented inflation. The weather signals are different now, and there is no positive certainty of the future.

Congress, also in doubt, can afford to wait. And wait it probably will while the President assumes an air of confidence that cannot be very deeply felt.

Washington Calling

Laws 'Control' Religion

By MARQUIS CHILDS

WHILE Hungary and Bulgaria have been holding well-advertised public trials of churchmen accused of various crimes, another Russian satellite has been proceeding with far greater subtlety and virtually no publicity to squeeze out the last vestiges of religious freedom. In Rumania the little band of communists running the country have taken over control of all religion.

Step by step the church has been made subservient to the all-powerful state. It is a revealing case study in communist techniques believed to have been directed from Moscow.

The reason there has been no publicity is that the Iron Curtain around Rumania seems today to be more impenetrable than the curtain surrounding Soviet Russia itself.

Not a single American newspaperman is reporting from Bucharest today and Rumania has repeatedly denied applications for visas from American correspondents seeking admission to the country.

The basic step in reducing every church and every minister of whatever faith to complete subservience was the Rumanian cults law adopted last year. In clause after clause that law spells out the controls to be exercised by the government. Article 13 of the law says:

"Religious cults, in order to be allowed to organize and to function, must be recognized by decree of the Praesidium of the Grand National Assembly issued upon proposal of the government, following recommendation by the Minister of Cults. Recognition may be withdrawn in the same manner for cause."

The government under the law has the power to withdraw in whole or in part church subsidies in the event of infringement of "Laws Concerning the Democratic order of the Rumanian Peoples Republic." Violations of the cults law are decided by government agencies completely under the thumb of the Central Regime.

★

How the Law Works.

ALL religious functionaries from priests to archbishops must take an oath of loyalty to "preserve the secrecy of my office as ordered by the state."

The budget of each church is subject to the supervision of the Ministry of Cults. The Minister of Cults, Stanciu Stoian, was handpicked to carry out a ruthless assignment.

Long before the cults law, the way had been prepared for reducing the Rumanian Orthodox Church—the largest sect, with 13,000,000 adherents—to a kept status. With the death of the elderly Patriarch of the Orthodox Church a much younger man—archbishop Justinian Marrina — was named in his place. Marina had given every indication of willingness to play the game of the Communist government.

The cults law prepared the way for action against all denominations. It provided, for example, that each denomination should have a Diocese for each 750,000 of its adherents.

While this did not hit the Orthodox Church it cut down the number of Dioceses of other churches, particularly the two branches of the Catholic church—Uniate and Roman—from five dioceses to two.

Under the cults law all effective ties of any church with any organization outside Rumania had been severed and the entire personnel of all churches "Must Be Rumanian Nationals."

This has just about put an end to the Protestant missions that formerly existed.

All this is happening with most Americans hardly aware of how completely the whole development of western freedom and western thought is being reversed.

Results Vindicate Occupational Policy

By J. C. OESTREICHER

REPORTS of Gen. Lucius D. Clay's forthcoming retirement as U. S. military governor of Germany and the trial of 20 fumbling espionage agents in Munich coincided to underscore one truly great achievement of American occupational policy.

This is the astonishing degree of success attained by Gen. Clay's comparative handful of forces in checking subversive action in what would seem to be the world's most fertile field for it.

The gang rounded up and tried at Munich presumably is the most dangerous group of anti-American desperadoes encountered since the United States took over western Germany with Great Britain and France in May, 1945.

They are supposed to have picked up information for relay to the communist Czechoslovakian government in Prague, which in turn presumably passed it on to the Kremlin.

But while the heavy terms of imprisonment meted out to the ringleaders prove that they conspired actively against the military security of the United States, they apparently achieved little indeed.

The measure of their punishment would seem to denote more of an "A for effort" than any real degree of success

Inasmuch as the Soviets never have been economical in their payments for subversion and espionage, the spies must have been the best obtainable and by sheer logic therefore much credit should be given to the U. S occupation forces for stopping them in their tracks.

Like all defeated and occupied countries, Germany is filled with unreliables and unpredictables, the disillusioned, the jobless and the hungry.

There must be literally thousands of men and women who lost faith in the doctrines of Adolf Hitler and who have had no real way of learning the virtues of democracy.

There could be no better candidates for the espionage trade, for under-cover activity breeds a certain sense of self-importance and even in many cases a striving for martyrdom.

This is where the little-praised and often-maligned civilian employes of the U. S. military government come in. As much as the constabulary, the courts-martial and the military tribunals, these agents have been responsible for keeping the malcontents under surveillance and in line.

What Some Other People Are Saying

ROBERT R. YOUNG, chairman of the Federation of Railway Progress: "If congressmen were not readily for sale, blocs would not be organized to buy them."

* * *

AIR SECRETARY SYMINGTON, commenting on the global journey of the B-50 "Lady Luck II": "I believe it has proved that the shadow of American air power can be cast over any area in the world."

* * *

REP. RICHARD M. NIXON (R-Calif), co-sponsor of the Mundt-Nixon communist control bill: "It's highly significant that communists all over the world are showing their true colors in that their loyalty is to Russia and not to the country in which they live. This is all the more reason to relentlessly expose all the communist traitors in our midst."

Glaring Abuse of Free Mail Privilege

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — House leaders are quietly investigating one of the biggest franking grabs in congressional history. It involves jaunty GOP Representative Ralph W. Gwinn of New York, the man who, at minimum wage hearings last week, angrily told a laundry-worker witness to take in washing at home if she didn't like the wages paid by her employer.

Gwinn has launched the most extensive one-man mail crusade since the days of former isolationist Congressman Ham Fish—aimed at undermining President Truman's "Fair Deal" program.

He is mailing out more than 900,000 letters containing 2,250,000 copies of speeches against public housing, federal aid to education, rent control and other planks of the Democratic platform.

A good part of this already has been sent to the Committee for Constitutional Government and two mailing agencies in New York City for distribution under Gwinn's free congressional frank. The rest is clogging a corridor in the basement of the House office building, waiting to be mailed.

However, what the people on the receiving end of this propaganda typhoon do not realize is that they—the taxpayers—are footing a good part of the bill.

The estimated first-class mailing cost to the post office department of Gwinn's 900,000 political letters is $27,000. In addition, the taxpayers are paying $1,755 for the 900,000 free envelopes he is using, plus an estimated $3,000 expense of stuffing the envelopes with Gwinn's speeches—a service provided without cost to the congressman by the House folding room.

In other words, Gwinn is socking the taxpayers more than $31,000 for his political letter lobby.

Under the law, Gwinn must pay the government printing office for reprinting the speeches he is sending out. This came to $7,828.97, plus an additional sum for printing speech titles on the envelopes. The New York congressman paid this by personal check, but he refuses to say where he got the money, except that it came from friends.

Note—Not even in the heat of an election campaign has anyone mailed out 900,000 propaganda speeches. Significantly Gwinn has only 280,000 constituents in his district.

French Commie Cleanup.

The attempted communist housecleaning of the French armed forces is much more significant than meets the eye. It also goes to the heart of the question now under debate by the U. S. Congress as to whether European armies are worth anything under the North Atlantic Pact as a defense bulwark for the USA.

What most people have forgotten is that Maurice Thorez French communist leader, was once vice premier of France. At that time, communists also held the vitally important posts of minister of air and minister of national defense.

This was the equivalent of having communists in the jobs now held by James V. Forrestal and Stuart Symington in the USA.

At that time—from about 1945 through 1946—the French communist ministers of air and defense loaded up their establishments with communists in such key spots as ground crews, arsenals, and communications. To clean them all out now by force or loyalty tests would be almost impossible.

However, the cleansing has been made somewhat easier by the fact that many Frenchmen who once hopped on the communist bandwagon have now voluntarily hopped off.

There has been a considerable change of sentiment in France—away from Russia and toward the USA.

The recent French Gratitude Train, which represented a gigantic job of organization and to which 6,000,000 Frenchmen contributed, is a graphic illustration of how the French people are trying to show their true sentiment—even though President Truman didn't have the courtesy to welcome the Frenchmen or travel three blocks to see them present their merci boxcar to the District of Columbia.

For when you have the railroad workers of France and the backbone of the French people sending a train all the way to the American people, it's a lot more significant than internal purges.

Wolves of Wall Street.

WALL STREET'S investment bankers are quietly shopping around for a grade A university financial expert with a national name to window-dress a blast against competitive bidding.

Cyrus Eaton, Cleveland industrialist and banker, has been fighting for competitive bidding on stock and bond issues for years, claiming that it was the only way to prevent inside deals by interlocking directorates which bilked the public, the companies and non-Wall Street underwriting firms.

Eaton's efforts made competitive bidding a SEC responsibility. But it is legally required only in the case of public-utility securities, and even then all kinds of exceptions can be granted.

Recently Eaton's demands that the public interest come first in new financing caused the SEC to order the Oklahoma Gas and Electric issue and the Ohio Public Service issues to be sold competitively. The investment-banking fraternity, which hates Eaton because of his long-time advocacy of competitive bidding and of regional finance, now wants to fight back—but only under cover through someone with a university name.

Assignment: America

'Just Luck' He Says

By INEZ ROBB

DALLAS, Texas, — What a man needs for success in the oil business is a lei of four leaf clovers, a carload of rabbits' feet, horse shoes and the luck of the Irish.

"It is largely a matter of luck" says the man who has done more to take the element of luck out of the oil business than any other man living.

He is Everette Lee Degolyer, 61, the first man who ever wore a Phi Beta Kappa key into the oil fields and came back to tell the tale.

This roly-poly man, with round, ruddy face beneath a thatch of white hair, is one of the most distinguished of living Americans, the nation's most eminent oil geologist and the first in the world to apply the science of geophysics to the oil field.

Through his devotion to geophysics (He often is called the father of this relatively new science), Degolyer has revolutionized the oil business in the last thirty years and taken much of the guesswork and gamble out of it.

To the wildcatter's despair, no one has yet invented an infallible wand to detect sure-shot gushers under the earth's surface. But Degolyer's scientific methods will do nicely till the wand comes along.

His innumerable clients, associates and imitators have billions in the till to prove that Degolyer's geophysics do pay off. He himself is a millionaire many times over, and not solely through luck. And, as a recipient of the John Fritz medal, he is in notable if astral association with such departed scientists as Edison, Marconi, Orville Wright and George Westinghouse.

Nonetheless, he sat in his big office in downtown Dallas and amicably maintained that horse shoes have science beat a mile in the oil business. He insisted:

"If you have enough luck, you don't need skill but you never have enough skill not to need luck."

* * *

Books Are His Hobby.

AS PROOF of his theory, he points to his work as junior geologist with the Mexican Eagle Oil Co. While he was still a student at the University of Oklahoma, Degolyer supervised the drilling of Potrero Del Llano no. 4, the largest oil well in captivity, which has produced more than 130,000,000 barrels.

"Sheer luck," he insists. That also goes for his reputation as a crap shooter, from which field he retired as undefeated champ—I'm told—five years ago.

Degolyer began to collect books simultaneously with oil wells. Today, his Dallas home houses one of the most famous libraries in the world, devoted to books on the Spanish Southwest. His 7,000 rare volumes deal principally with Mexico, New Mexico and Arizona, with excursions into Texas and California.

Degolyer, who wears his wit and erudition as jauntily as he did a natty brown flannel suit with white chalk stripes when I talked with him, says one of his extremely rare items is "The Life of Billy the Kid" by Pat Garrett, the frontier sheriff who eventually pumped the Kid full of lethal lead.

To his fame as scientist and collector, Degolyer has more recently added laurels as a bona fide angel. He owns the controlling interest in America's foremost literary weekly, "The Saturday Review of Literature."

A devoted reader of the Review since its first issue, he raced to its rescue some time ago when it was in financial trouble. For relaxation, Degolyer reads historical novels.

As Cerf Tells It

A senior in the Pulitzer School of Journalism observed. "Even barbers make more money than authors today. I don't know whether to take a job in Greco's barber shop when I graduate, or write novels." Dean Ackerman suggested. "Toss a coin, my boy. Heads or tales!"

LIFE'S LIKE THAT

"What if I do keep nagging you about wanting a new spring outfit. You ought to be glad I take you into my confidence."

Dave Boone Says:

NEVER have the confessions of so few seemed to phony to so many.

* * *

You would think that even Moscow would make a slight effort to make the "confessions" in connection with those "spy trials" seem a little convincing. They dragged Upton Sinclair's writings, the American way of life and even Barney Baruch into the latest "confessions," making it plainer than ever that those persecuted churchmen are victims of some horror technique.

* * *

Anybody can now see that the Soviets and their satellites are putting on an all-out drive against religion and things of the spirit, with the job of discrediting them knowing no limits. It doesn't seem to me that the church, especially in America, is fighting back as hard as it should.

* * *

How any church in the land, regardless of creed, can let a single service pass without some emphasis on what is happening in the Soviet orbit and without a forceful appeal to every churchgoer to register his indignation every day in every way is beyond me.

Daily Bible Thought

Thy life shall be clearer than the noon day. Though there be darkness, it shall be as the morning.—Job 11:17.

Words of the Wise

Those who have finished by making all others think with them, have usually been those who began daring to think with themselves.—Colton.

As Others See It

Some Are Overlooked.

A local citizen shoots a policeman on the same night that another threatens two officers with a shotgun. Both, according to witnesses "had been drinking." Just a couple of Men of Distinction who never show up in the full-color ads. — Kansas City Star.

Rev. Matthew Madden, pastor of the First Congregational church, spoke on the history and organization of the Congregational church. Rev. Madden stressed the liberality and individuality of the church, which he said makes it more of a fellowship than a strict organization with ecclesiastical government.

Refreshments were served buffet style with Mrs. Matthew Madden serving and Mrs. James Rice pouring. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Oberlin, March 17, for a Saint Patrick's day party.

The first part of Mrs. Lew's talk was "What Christianity Has Done for China." She told how children received their training, physical as well as education. The Chinese consider it quite an honor to attend one of these schools. "What We Need In China Today" was the second phase of her talk. Mrs. Lew told the members that more missionaries and schools are needed for more than 400,000,000 people there.

The members will meet again on April 5 at 2 p. m. for a regular business session.

Talk Given By Mrs. Al Preyer

"Puerto Rico" was the topic of the program given by Mrs. Al Preyer at Circle Four of the First Presbyterian church meeting Thursday afternoon.

On April 7 Mrs. Nelson Neff will be hostess at her home at 619 Harter avenue. She will be assisted by Mrs. H. D. Klee and Mrs. J. H. Sanford.

Iron and calcium are often poorly utilized by the body so it is specially important that our everyday diets contain plenty of foods that have goodly proportions of these basic minerals. Dried fruits are good sources of both calcium and iron. They are abundant and priced to fit the budget so their nutritional importance becomes even greater.

Eels live in fresh-water rivers, but go to the Sargasso Sea to spawn.

Business Meeting Held By Auxiliary

Mrs. George Stewart, president, conducted the business meeting of the Auxiliary 100, Sons of Union Veterans, which was held in Memorial building Thursday evening.

Equal parts of diced celery and pineapple are excellent for a salad when teamed with black olives and mayonnaise. Serve on shredded escarole or lettuce or on romaine.

Afternoon Guild Given Playlet at Church Meeting

"BUDGETING Our Family Resources" was the topic of the Women's Afternoon Guild of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church at their meeting Wednesday afternoon.

The theme of the subject was "The More We Give to Others the More We Are Increased." This was given in the playlet form with Mrs. Gordon Watson, Mrs. Ralph Damlos and Mrs. John Fisher participating. Mrs. George Keil furnished the violin accompaniment.

Mrs. W. E. Post led the devotions and Mrs. Arminta Collins read the scripture.

A contribution will be made to the Mansfield Council of Church Women by the group.

Mrs. Earl Henry was welcomed as a new member. The hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Harry Harbeson, Mrs. Floyd Schneider, Mrs. J. G. Frink, Mrs. Frank May and Mrs. Anna Witzky.

The next meeting will be held March 16 at the church. This will be all day sewing.

Circle Five of the First Presbyterian church met Thursday at the home of Mrs. W. R. Wixon, Bowland road. Dr. Harry Wain of the health department was guest speaker.

Horoscope

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Saturday, March 5

A particularly lively, enterprising and constructive state of affairs, in which major interests should be attacked with zeal and the promise of hearty support from influential sources is forecast. Superiors, elders and large institutions may be found ready with capital for promotion and with favors and tokens of good will. It might be well to defer to the judgment and larger vision of such, since the personal perspective may not be so clear and workable.

For the Birthday

Those whose birthday it is, may find they can benefit, on larger issues and objectives, by deferring to the wiser heads and and riper judgment of superiors, friends or public officials, whose experience and enterprise have been fully tested. Their vision may have larger scope and their financial aid worth the yielding and compromise on important issues.

A child born on this day may be endowed with versatility and adaptability, but its need of cooperation justifies a yielding to wiser heads and more enlarged experience.

Unemployment Aid Requests Jump

More than 1,000 persons are trying to get jobs through the Mansfield state employment office which has only 130 openings listed, Manager C. W. Handley said yesterday.

Nearly all of the job seekers also have filed for unemployment compensation, Handley said.

The employment office is expecting the number of compensation applicants to increase considerably next week when those in the city who were laid off the first of this week are allowed to file.

A person must have been out of a job for one week before he is permitted to file for unemployment compensation, Handley said.

The employment office has nearly 800 jobs open in other parts of the state and nation, but there are only 30 jobs for women and about 100 for men in the immediate Mansfield area.

Jobs offered locally include domestic and stenographic positions for women, and draftsman, candy makers, salesmen of all types, and parts clerks openings for men.

TIFFIN — (AP) — A CIO United Electrical workers strike at the General Electric company plant here entered its third week yesterday, and as a result lay-offs began at GE's refrigeration division in Erie, Pa.

Mansfield Merchants Sold 6-Cent Yard Goods In 1858

Mansfielders who can barely remember the days before prices began to skyrocket would turn green with envy at prices quoted in advertisements in two 90-year-old newspapers owned by Jack Small, 82 West Second street.

The papers are the Richland Shield and Banner and the Mansfield Herald, both dated June 23, 1858, which have been handed down in the Small family.

Typical of the low prices advertised by Mansfield stores in 1858 are cotton prints and muslins for dresses at six to 12 cents a yard. One store advertised a bargain in silk materials, regularly 25 cents a yard, at 18¾ cents a yard.

The merchants invariably advertised their goods as "the cheapest to be had" and many offered to take country produce in place of cash.

Most of the advertisements were similar to those now found in classified sections of newspapers, although some were embellished with small pictures. The ads appeared on all four pages, including the front page.

Most of the news was of local origin and written in flowery language. Novels in serial form, poetry, and speeches occupied much of the space in news columns. The Mansfield Herald ran a speech made by Mansfielder John Sherman in the House of Representives which was continued from the previous week and began in the middle of a sentence.

In the Shield and Banner a continued novel occupied the first three columns of the front page while a story of a murder was run toward the bottom under "miscellaneous news."

A small item in the Herald announced the president of the United States Senate had closed the refreshment room adjoining the Senate, cutting off the "Senatorial grog." Reason for the closing was given by the paper as disorder in the Senate growing out of the "potations of senators."

Queen wasps first lay the eggs of worker wasps and when they are old enough to provide food, lay eggs of queens and males.

The Mansfield Herald ran a speech made by Mansfielder John Sherman in the House of Representives which was continued from the previous week and began in the middle of a sentence.

In the Shield and Banner a continued novel occupied the first three columns of the front page while a story of a murder was run toward the bottom under "miscellaneous news."

A small item in the Herald announced the president of the United States Senate had closed the refreshment room adjoining the Senate, cutting off the "Senatorial grog." Reason for the closing was given by the paper as disorder in the Senate growing out of the "potations of senators."

STRAIGHT LINES
Make New 1949 Models Handsomest Ever Produced

Curves may be all right for the ladies, but men look best in clothes with straight lines—which explains why our new 1949 suit and topcoat models are the smartest, most comfortable clothes we've ever turned out in our famous Cleveland tailoring shops.

Take the shoulders, for example: They're broader, squarer, more athletic looking. The chest and shoulder blades are fuller... affording a delightful sense of freedom for movement and action. Best of all the waistline is lower, where it should be; and hips are straight, flat, masculine.

In keeping with the spirit of 1949, fabrics are smoother, more pliant . . . and more colorful — the result is more becoming appearance and greater comfort.

Flees Russia On Tiny Raft, Believes U. S. S. R. Planning War In Near Future

TOKYO —(UP)— A Russian veteran of World War II, who fled to Japan in hopes of getting to the United States, said yesterday he believed the Soviet would start a new war in the near future.

He said Russia had raised its troop strength in the Far East to above normal.

Allied headquarters unveiled Innokentiy Zyrayanov, 24, a former private in the Red army, at a press conference. Officials said he sailed a crude, home-made, six-foot raft across the perilous waters from the Kurile islands to northern Japan on Sept 21 He has been questioned by the intelligence division of the U. S Army since then.

Syrayanov's appearance followed by 24 hours that of Sgt Vladimir Barashkov, 23, of the Russian Air Force who stole a Russian plane and crash-landed it in Japan on Nov 10 Barashkov said there were four Russian armies in the Far East

Syrayanov said the southern trip of the Sakhalin peninsula, which juts down toward Japan, is used as a base for Russian submarine operations.

He said Russian construction in the Kurile islands, north of Hokkaido in the Japanese chain, was on military installations But he said he did not know of any large military bases there.

Zyrayanov, who built his raft at a ship repair base where he worked, said additional Russian troops had been dispatched to the Far East during the past 12 months

He said he hoped to obtain American citizenship eventually

"I would rather be a slave under capitalism than remain in the Soviet Union " he said.

Zyrayanov told newsmen he decided to escape from communism because of racial persecution which he said existed despite the Soviet constitution that is supposed to grant equality.

He explained that he was an orphan and believed that he was born of a Russian mother and Japanese father.

Two Russian newsmen were on hand for the questioning Zyrayanov appeared in an American civilian suit and said he had not talked to any Japanese officials since he arrived here.

"I was afraid the treatment in American hands might be worse than under Japanese when I reached Hokkaido," Zyrayanov said "The contrary has been true "

8 Area Men Enlist Here

The eight men who enlisted at the Mansfield Army and Air Force recruiting station Wednesday were the first men to sign up in this area since the beginning of last month

Enlisting for three years were Leo R Steele, of Tiro, Thurman E Decker, Marion; Harold Johnson, Shelby, Dale R Leonard, Bucyrus; Alfred C Cornish, Upper Sandusky, John McPeek, Columbus, and Robert L Dawson and John P. Bobst Mt Vernon.

This month's quota was not filled yesterday and the Army recruiting office said more men would be taken from this area this month.

Flood Suit Cites Galion

BUCYRUS — A $2,500 action for damages has been filed in Crawford Common Pleas court here by E L Hough, Galion, against the city of Galion for compensation for alleged flood damage to his home

The plaintiff claims in his petition water is diverted onto his property, flooding it and washing away dirt from around the house. He claims part of the foundation has been washed out and his modern six-room house is in an "unhealthy and unsafe" condition due to the floods, which he alleged occured five times during May and June of 1948.

The city is charged with failure to keep the water courses and culverts along Murray and East Church streets free of weeds, dirt and other debris

Reshuffle VA, Report Urges

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Hoover commission has proposed "major improvements" in the operation of the Veterans' Administration It laid special emphasis on tightening VA education and insurance programs

The commission reported poor management and waste in the education setup, in efficiency and delay in handling insurance problems and "serious internal organizational defects" in the agency as a whole

The commission said the agency should separate its insurance program from its other functions and set them up in a veterans insurance corporation

Murder Victims Dipped In Acid

LONDON — (UP) — Bits of human flesh found in a basement real estate office were examined by Scotland Yard pathologists yesterday to determine whether two whole families were killed by a mass murderer who dissolved the bodies of his victims in acid

The evidence was hauled out of a Kensington cellar as smooth-talking, handsome John George Haigh, 39, a businessman, was taken to jail at nearby Lewes He was charged in a Horsham courtroom with the murder of Mrs Olive Durand Deacon, 69, whose body also was dissolved in acid

U S. Communists Concentrated In Hollywood, Washington, N. Y.

NATURALLY, a conscientious American is pleased by each gain against those whom we carelessly call the communists in our midst. Few of these people are actually communists, for even the Russian government and the Communist party, its American outpost, practice and promote a system which is far from their professed plan.

However, we know what we mean by communists. We mean the men who are the Russian government and its system of satellites. And, here at home, we mean the traitors who are loyal to Soviet Russia and therefore enemies of our own government, our nation and our people. They are concentrated in three geographical areas, New York and vicinity, Washington and Hollywood and vicinity.

Most of these traitors are listed in the reports of the Dies and Thomas committees.

The Truman government quickly got rid of some of the traitors within the government itself but lacked the courage to throw out the worst.

President Truman found himself in a political fix and actually bidding for the communist vote in New York, and even found Governor Thomas E. Dewey bidding against him for that same vote.

There has been absolutely no change of heart or politics in Hollywood. The moving picture industry is still the great source of prestige and money for the communists of the United States and anyone who tells you otherwise is to say the best of him, mistaken.

Not one communist actor or writer, director or producer has been dropped except that a test was made in one case but only as a false gesture, not as a reform.

The committee on un-American activities named only a handful of the most defiant communists but it had no proof against others, most of them in the high brackets.

And the moving picture industry knows the names of all of them. But they are not fired or exposed and the pretense of an excuse is that they could sue for damages for discrimination and defamation.

That is nonsense. Hollywood discriminates all the time. It discriminates in favor of New Dealers against Republicans, in favor of sisters, in-laws, cousins and aunts as against nonrelatives.

There is constant talk and great fear of war and the people of the United States unwillingly are rushing toward bankruptcy merely to guard against a threat of war which is presented by Russia and by the communists of New York, Washington and Hollywood.

When we see planes flashing dangerously across the sky and at evening on the streets see young American men walking aimlessly in uniform, do we realize that the only chance for this is that Russia threatens us with war with the constant help of the communists and the fellow-travelers?

The list of the Hollywood communists and fellow travelers is published in the records of Congress and could be circulated in every home in the United States for the only kind of social action that Hollywood understands, the boycott.

Walter Winchell

'War' Between Chief Executives And Reporters Never Has a Truce

ONE WAR that has never known a truce is the constant strife between journalists and Chief Execs. Some battles were more hectic than others, but no President has ever escaped unscathed. . . . When Teddy Roosevelt was Chief Exec he sued the N. Y. World for libel.

The President of the United States lost the case.

After a Boston gazette attacked T. Roosevelt he ordered the Weather Bureau to stop furnishing that paper with its forecasts.

The paper threatened a civil suit—and the order was cancelled.

Reporters resent vicious criticism as much as the targets for such attacks. When one Washington reporter circulated a sordid lie about FDR—the other correspondents voted to expel him from the National Press club.

Jefferson never made any attempt at suppression. Remember he said: "If a people had to be without newspapers or without government they would do better without government."

Grant's tippling weakness provided a field day for journalistic barb-pitching. One gazette sarcasm'd: "Periodical neuralgia is what they call it in Washington now. Grant has it, and he has not been able to see visitors for several days. Parson Newman prayed for him yesterday, and the parson's intimate relations with Divine Providence, backed by continued liberal doses of hydrate of chloral, justify the hope that the patient will get his nerves steadied in a day or two."

★

Charles Dana's N. Y. Sun once published a full page sketch of a tombstone. On it was inscribed: "Sacred to the memory of American Liberty. Born July 4th, 1776. Died by order of Ulysses I on November 28th, 1876. Age 100 years, 4 months, 24 days."

The N. Y. Sun's blasts caused editor Henry Watterson to quip: "Grant is suffering from sunstroke. He sees nothing but spots in it."

FDR believed those who descend to abuse harm themselves more than their opponents. He once emphasized this point by telling a classic Chinese yarn: Two Chinese were arguing heatedly in the midst of a crowd.

A stranger expressed surprise that no blows were being struck. His Chinese friend replied: "The man who strikes first admits that his ideas have given out."

The theme of this column can be nutshelled in a line: Liberty means freedom of the press—as well as freedom for the President.

60 Bankers Hear Talks On Trends

Urged to Keep Credit Flexible

Sixty persons representing 21 banks in Richland, Ashland, and Knox counties attended an area bankers conference last night at the Mansfield-Leland hotel and heard two guest speakers stress that these are uncertain times.

"No one knows if the inflationary period is just leveling off, or if this is the beginning of a downward spiral," A. T. Cutler, trade analyst of the Federal Reserve bank, said in his talk on "The Business Situation."

'There is a general feeling of uneasiness Cutler said as he discussed business conditions and their relation to banking.

Donald S. Thompson, vice president of the Federal Reserve bank, who discussed "What's Ahead for Banking" urged banks to maintain a flexible credit policy.

"With all of this uncertainty it behooves bankers to be more informed about their investiments," Thompson said.

An ecomonist, Thompson discussed general business, price, and retail trade trends, and their relationship to the banking picture.

Each talk was followed by an active question and answer period.

It was disclosed that 450 banks have been represented at similar meetings in 1949. This is the first for the Mansfield area.

H. A. McElhaney, president of the Mansfield Clearing House association, was chairgroup of local bank executives assisted in arrangements for the meeting.

Moderator of the conference was Roger R. Clouse, vice president of the Federal Reserve bank, which was host for the event.

Girl Scouts Hold Party

Members of Girl Scout Troop 14 entertained 17 boys of the seventh grade of Johnny Appleseed junior high school at a party at Johns park pavilion last night.

Folk dancing, novelty and round dancing entertained the group.

Group musicians badges were awarded to 15 members of the troop.

Those receiving awards were Shirley Dune, Louise Rusk, Marilyn Farmer, Bertha Workman, Barbara Schaefer, Elinor Wilson, Eleanor Boyd, Beverly Hall, Dorothy George, Janet Grey, Anita Sites, Nancy and Nanette Robbins, Sally Stevens, and Joan Maginniss.

Refreshments were served by troop committee mothers Mrs. W. J. Robbins, Mrs. Richard E. Hall, and Mrs. Dean Boyd.

Mrs. W. M. Wilson and Mrs. Harold George are troop leaders.

FIRST SALE—As the Girl Scout cookie sale got under way yesterday, Sammie Kay Matthes, member of Girl Scout Troop 25 and president of the junior council of Girl Scouts, sold the first box of cookies to Dean Dickerson, seated, president of the Mansfield Chamber of Commerce. Looking on is John Routzon, secretary and manager of the Chamber of Commerce. So convincing was Sammie, who already had taken orders for 37 boxes of cookies, she sold two boxes to each of the men. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Matthes, 328 Fair street. Yesterday, first day of the annual cookie sale, Girl Scouts picked up more than 9,000 boxes of cookies at headquarters to fill orders taken the last two weeks. More than 10,000 boxes are expected to be sold in Mansfield this year.

6 at Shelby Unopposed

Primary Vote Held Unlikely

Six candidates were still without opposition for Shelby city offices as today's 6:30 p. m. for filing with the board of elections approached.

And opposition has devoloped only so far as the general election is concerned in two races—those for second and third ward councilmen. If no more than two file for any office, a primary is not required. Under the Shelby charter form of government the election is non-partisan.

Seeking to represent the second ward are John H. Gray and Henry J. Miller while Ross J. Bringman and Ronald Milliron have filed their declarations of candidacy for third ward councilman.

No opposition has developed so far for the following, all of whom seeks reelection:

Suspects Held In Burglary

Two suspects in the burglary of the John Hall distributing company, 53 Surry road, last night, were questioned today by police.

Police said the suspects were a 30-year-old Cedar street man and a 24-year-old North Main street man. Both were brought in early today by Patrolman John P. Butler who found the men in the vicinity after discovering the burglary on routine patrol at 2 a. m.

Patrolman Butler said $12 in cash and checks was missing from the office which was ransacked. Entrance, police said, was gained by breaking out a window on the west side of the building.

Group Plans Own Theater

Twenty-five per cent of all receipts taken in by the Little Theater group will go into a building fund for the group's own theater, it was announced at a meeting of the board of trustees last night.

William Schultz, president, said the last play presented by the group was a financial success.

Try-outs for the next play, a comedy, will be held the latter part of this month. The play will be given three nights, May 10,11, and 12. May 10 will be student night.

Earl Heasley, director of the plays who is in charge of try-outs, said the group is seeking new talent. The try-outs are open to anyone interested in amateur dramatics.

Soldier Held

Robert Stevens, 22, of 256 North Franklin avenue, was held in county jail today for Camp Kilmer, N. J. officials after the youth was apprehended yesterday by sheriff's deputies on an AWOL charge. Deputies said Stevens has been reported absent without leave since Dec. 18, 1948.

Members Told of Fund Need

Dispute Livens Session

The Richland County Farm Bureau Cooperative association plans to issue $50,000 worth of Class A preferred stock to finance operations of the organization, it was revealed at the annual meeting last night.

The announcement was made by J. Arnold Burkhart, county Co-Op manager, during a session that was enlivened by charges that the annual business report was "misleading." The meeting was held at Madison high school.

Burkhart said the organization had to borrow heavily last week to cover $25,000 in bank overdrafts because a great deal of the Co-Op's funds are tied up in merchandise.

Charges that the annual report figures were misleading were hurled by Gail Hammett, as stockholder in the organization and a member of the county Farm Bureau staff until last January.

Hammett said (to W. E. Stough, president of the Farm Bureau, who was presiding), "The figures in Mr. Burkhart's report are misleading, in that they tend to imply the Farm Bureau made a profit on last year's operations."

Hammett referred to the Co-Operative's "Resume of Operations" which showed a loss of $25,859, and listed $27,007 in "patronage refunds received from state" (Ohio Farm Bureau).

RAPS 'REFUND' FIGURE

Hammett contended the patronage refund was "misleading" since it was computed in conjunction with the loss and led members to believe there was a profit of $1,148.77. He charged that this $27,000 was not received in cash from the state association and there was no reason why it should be used to make the financial condition of the Co-Operative appear better than it actually was.

Stough countered that "some" of the patronage refund had been in cash, but did not state what amount of it was cash.

Co-Operatives are set up so that part of the profits, if any, are re-invested in the organization and persons using the Co-Operative's facilities or purchasing supplies from it are issued this stock, known as patronage refunds.

The patronage stock is issued to the patrons in proportion to the amount of business they do with the Co-Operative.

It is this patronage refund, which was in stock and "some" cash, that was paid to the Richland Farm Bureau by the Ohio Farm Bureau and gave the report a seemingly "black" instead of "red" balance, Hammett claimed.

CITES GRAIN LOSSES

Co-Op Farmer Carl Baker wanted to know last night "why the Co-Operative stays in the grain and livestock shipping businesses when both enterprises continue to lose money."

Stough answered by pointing out that the Richland Farm Bureau's losses in grain dealings were due to the commodity break and the livestock shipping venture "only lost $90", in the last fiscal year.

Sales volume of the county Co-Op last year increased about $61,000 over 1947 to a total of $1,891,721. Net savings, however, dropped from $23,680 in 1947 to $4,116 last year.

Principal talk last night was given by Morris Allton, assistant legislative director of the Ohio Farm Bureau. Other speakers were Clair Kirchhofer and Paul L. White of the county Farm Bureau staff.

Other business concluded at last night's meeting included the re-election of G. H. Culler and the election of Max McFarland to the county Bureau's board of directors.

Funds Set Up For Improving New Richland Wildlife Refuge

More improvements for the Richland county Fish and Game Protective association's newly-purchased refuge north west of Mansfield were assured last night when the members voted to allocate $1,000 to the Farm committee.

Plans call for modernization of the house, installation of electricity in the barn, and general improvements. A new system of volunteer work has been established in order to carry out this program with each man placing his name on file where he can be called when needed.

Ed Sites delivered a report on activities of the Richland county delegates to the League of Ohio Sportsmen convention in Columbus Feb. 18, 19, and 20. Gus Miller, chairman, and Lowell Hamilton, the third delegate, also covered the group's activities.

Two donations to the association were announced last night. One, a flag donated by Harry Krumm, will fly at the game refuge. A few minutes after Krumm had donated the flag, the group added $30.08 for the erection of a suitable mast.

The other donation, a case of outboard motor oil, was presented by the Hart Oil company and auctioned off with the proceeds of $15.20 being added to the farm fund.

The meeting culminated a three-month membership drive with G. M. Risacher turning in the greatest number of memberships for the period, well over 150. Club officials commended Risacher and admitted they had trouble keeping track of the new members as he turned them in. He will be presented with a camp stove for winning the competition. The stove was donated by Fred Frankeberger.

The Pheasant committee reported the release of six hen pheasants and three cock birds during the past month and announced that any farm children desiring to raise pheasants for release could obtain eggs by contacting any member of the club or any of its officials.

Irrigation Aids Land Hungry U. S.

Reclaims Great Farming Areas

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Americans are land hungry. Every time the government opens new lands to settlement many more people attempt to get them than there are farms available.

At the same time the number of farms in the U. S. is decreasing. More land is in cultivation, but the farms are larger. And little land is left for expansion.

This raised the question of how much the government should spend creating new farms through irrigation, drainage and other projects.

That question is argued every year in Congress because the Interior department's reclamation bureau and the army engineers have plans for gigantic new dams. These projects cover every river basin in the U. S. and would open thousands of new acres to settlement. They would cost billions of dollars.

The Reclamation bureau's projects mostly are in western states. This is because farms in eastern states get plenty of water from rain. The west has fertile land but a dry climate. It doesn't rain enough to produce crops, other than dry land crops.

So the job is to build dams across western rivers to catch spring floods and other runoff and carry it to the good soil.

Since 1902, when the first reclamation dam was started, the bureau has spent more than $1,000,000,000 reclaiming lands. Today reclamation waters irrigate about 90,000 farms, either in whole or in part. These farms contain about 5,000,000 acres.

The value of all crops raised on these lands is estimated at $4,000,000,000 for the 46 growing seasons the reclamation bureau has operated.

The dams have the capacity to produce about 2,500,000 kilowatts of power. About $23,000,000 worth of power was sold in 1947 from reclamation projects.

The bureau estimates more than 5,000,000 people—about one fourth of the population in 17 states—are served either by government reclamation or power projects, on farms and in cities.

Guard Unit Now Readied

WASHINGTON — (UP) — The army reported today that Ohio's 37th Infantry division was now completely reorganized and ready to fight if necessary.

The division was the second National Guard unit in the country to complete its post-war program with all units qualified for federal recognition, the report said. Minnesota's 47th division was first.

The army said the 37th's manpower was now 13,500, or about 1,000 above the pre-war strength. The division has 110 units compared to 105 before the war.

"The 37th is designed to be nearly self-sufficient when engaged in combat, yet capable of maximum mobility," the official announcement said.

Escaper Back; Term Boosted

George Rios, who escaped from the cannery at the Mansfield reformatory last Nov. 15, was returned to the institution yesterday after his capture by Toledo police.

Acting Superintendent George Allarding said Rios will be given an additional two years sentence for his escape Friday in institution court.

Rios was received at the reformatory on Oct. 16, 1946 from Lucas county to serve one to 20 years for auto theft.

Score Dead After Blast

ISTANBUL — (INS) — An explosion which destroyed a munitions factory outside of Istanbul Wednesday night left 20 persons dead and 50 injured today.

Rescue teams probed through the wreckage of the building today in search of victims or possible survivors. The factory was said to have been manufacturing shells for Egypt.

Among those feared dead were ten firemen who tried to enter the flaming building.

Scores of persons were injured when nearby houses collapsed after the explosion. Windows as far as five miles from the scene were shattered.

Best Way to Win a Dispute? Just Set Fire to the House

TOKYO — (INS) — A Japanese doctor yesterday outlined his method of ending a quarrel with his wife.

Shigeo Miyata, who's also a painter, participated in a round-table conference sponsored by Josei - No - Tomo or "Women's Companion" magazine. Asked what he did in case of a quarrel with Mrs. Miyata, he replied:

"I become very violent. But of late, because the children have grown, I try to control myself to a certain extent.

"Experience shows the best way is to set fire to the Shoji (paper sliding doors).

"The flames spring up and unless the wife puts them out a real fire will start. So she makes a fuss, gives up the quarrel and apologizes."

(Japan's construction bureau revealed this week that 23,000 homes were burned down in 1948.)

Big Damage Suit Settled

A personal injury suit for $75,000 was settled abruptly yesterday as the hearing went into the third day before a common pleas court jury. Attorneys declined to divulge the amount of the settlement.

The suit was brought by Sturgeon Gregg, of Mansfield, R. D., against the Ohio Seamless Tube company, at Shelby. He sought the sum for injuries he contended he received while working to remove a crane at the Shelby plant.

Gregg, at the time of accident, March 6, 1947, was employed by the Mansfield Structural and Erecting company, which was engaged to do the work.

Representing Gregg were Attorneys George W. Biddle, and Karl Hoover, of Wooster, while Long, Anderson, and Green were the attorneys for the defendant.

Public Asked To Help Keep City Clean

Garbage Dumpers Subject to Fine

Persons who live in areas where the illegal dumping of rubbish and garbage is occurring were asked today to assist the Health department in the apprehension of the violators.

The Health department urged these residents to get the license number of an offender's car or attempt to identify him, and then notify the department.

If apprehended, the offender will be prosecuted under Section 4414 of the Ohio General Code which provides for a fine not to exceed $100 or imprisonment not to exceed 90 days, or both, department official said.

Health officers said there has been considerable dumping on Longview avenue, between Main street and Olivesburg road. This area was recently cleaned up, but it was reported there is now evidence that new dumping has occurred.

The city of Mansfield provides rubbish and garbage collection service for a small fee. Outside the city limits, garbage should be disposed of by burial and rubbish must be hauled to various established dumps, the Health department said.

The location of these dumps can be obtained from township trustees or from the Health department office.

Asks Tax Exemption

The city of Mansfield presented several applications before the Board of Tax Appeals in Columbus Wednesday afternoon to exempt from taxation the land purchased and being improved for the Clear Fork reservoir.

The city's case was presented by C. J. Kalbfleisch, city solicitor. Witnesses called by the city were Service-Safety Director Earl T. Garrison and Carl Walker, resident engineer for Jennings-Lawrence company, engineers for the Clear Fork project.

The city pays approximately $1,250 annually to Richland and Morrow counties on the land.

Richland County Prosecutor Harold Lutz moved to dismiss the applications on behalf of himself as prosecutor and the Lexington school district. He argued the property is not dedicated to public use.

The city was given 10 days to file a brief supporting its application.

Reclassify Army Office

Mansfield's Army recruiting station will no longer be classified as a "main" recruiting station, under an Army reorganization of recruiting in Ohio, it was announced today by Lt. Col. Albert C. Molter, officer in charge of Ohio recruiting for the Army.

Until now, the Mansfield station as a "main," gave enlistees their physicals and then swore them into the Army. Under the new set-up, the men will only be recruited in Mansfield and sent to a larger station such as Columbus or Cleveland, to be sworn in.

The information was given out by Col. Molter in a report stating Army recruiting for Ohio and Kentucky would be directed from Fort Hayes, Columbus, beginning April 1, and that the main recruiting stations in Ohio would be reduced from the present 12 to only seven.

Capt. R. L. Pine, commanding officer of the Mansfield station, could not be reached today to determine whether personnel would be removed from the Mansfield station.

"WHAT THIS COUNTRY AMOUNTS TO DEPENDS ON WHAT HAPPENS TO ITS HOMES."...
This message appeared first in March, 1948. Because so many people have asked to see it again, the life insurance companies and their agents bring it to you a second time.

"I pray the Lord my soul to keep"

Whatever our creed or language, we have all felt the impulse to pray. We may worship in various forms . . . we may call our God by various names . . . but, somehow, most of us express our faith in a Higher Power. When our loved ones are spared, we give thanks. At times of confusion or danger we call for guidance. When confronted by a mighty mountain, or the perfection of a tiny snowflake, we are awed by the wonder of life. We teach our children our faith, so that they will not be alone as they face the world.

Faith unites families for greater happiness

FAITH is a family affair!

Faith is not just for holy days. Faith is for every day . . . at work, at play, in the quiet times the family has together.

We need faith—and never so desperately as today. The world is filled with voices of confusion. It is easy to feel helpless and alone. But faith in a Power outside ourselves can be a bedrock of family unity, a shield for family happiness.

A return to faith can give men and women a broader view of life—a sense of perspective. Then they are better prepared for the give-and-take of family living. Small disputes have less chance of growing into serious quarrels which may tear marriage apart. The family united in faith has a strong and lasting bond.

Children naturally turn to faith when it is a daily part of the family life. And when they know the real meaning of faith, they will be tolerant of those who express their faith in other ways.

The home atmosphere is far different when a family stops trying to walk alone, when it sees its place in the bigger scheme of things. It works together for the things it can control—and trusts its God for guidance in problems beyond its control. Such a family can't help feeling closer together, more sure of itself, happier!

To keep alive the family's faith calls for a positive plan—just as you plan for your family's material welfare. How your family expresses its faith is a matter of choice. What is important to you is that you do express it!

DISTRIBUTION of basketball tournament tickets has always been a headache to school officials There's more demand than supply Here's how one of the larger "A" schools solved the problem Students got first crack at all alloted tickets with one going to each The only way adults could buy tickets would be if he or she would sign a blank listing four school children who were going to make the trip with them Even in this case adults were allowed only a single ducat The officials of this school reason that the game is for the students with adults a secondary item.

Mansfield 5 Seeks Third A's Victory

Two spots in district tournament play will be at stake in semi-final games of the Mansfield Class A sectional basketball joust tonight on the Senior high floor.

Bucyrus and Shelby open the program at 7 p m with Mansfield Senior high scheduled against Ashland in the finale. Both winners tonight will automatically qualify for district competition but first they will battle for the sectional crown tomorrow at 8 p m The winner goes to the Sandusky district with the runner-up playing at Findlay

ALL ARE SEEDED

All four semi-finalists are seeded teams with Bucyrus heading the list, followed by Ashland, Mansfield and Shelby However, Bucyrus and Mansfield are favored to meet in the finals The Redmen have won 15 straight and 16 of 17 for the season

Shelby turned in the only Bucyrus defeat in the second game of the season, 41 to 40. But Bucyrus came back six weeks later to snuff out the Whippets, 62 to 39. Bucyrus knocked Mansfield Madison, defending district champion, off in the first round, 36 to 29, while Shelby (10-8) will be making its first tourney stop.

Tonight's Ashland - Mansfield contest will be the 76th meeting between the two rivals Mansfield has a 40 to 35 bulge in the series and has won both of the 1949 games, 56 to 40 and 43 to 41 However, it is extremely tough to whip an ancient foe three times in a season and the tournament trail always seems to inspire underdog teams

Since Vern Hoffman took over as Tyger coach 10 years ago, Mansfield and Ashland have met three times in a season on three different occasions Tonight will be the fourth In only one of those campaigns has Mansfield won all three games.

TYGERS WIN THREE

That was in 1941-42 when the Tygers won, 42-31, 35-33 and 37-31.

In 1943-44, Mansfield won the first game, 48-37, Ashland took the second, 40 to 55 and Mansfield the third 44 to 33 Just two years ago, Ashland copped the first and third, 49 to 43 and 41 to 39 and Mansfield the second, 57 to 47

Slender Jimmy Anderson of Mansfield has been the top scorer in the two 1949 games with 34 points while Phil Lersch of Ashland is second with 23.

Ashland eliminated Crestline from the sectional Wednesday night, 69 to 45 while Senior high took over Galion, 67 to 45

Fred Staub tournament co-manager, announced this morning that there would be no tickets on sale at the gate tonight. If Senior high wins, 500 tickets for tomorrow's final game will go on sale at the high school at 8 a m at Room 107

LAFAYETTE IND — (UP) — Michigan's defending big nine champion swimmers meet their first real test today, with trial heats and finals scheduled in the 39th annual conference swimming and diving championships

Yuncker Quint Takes Lead In Commercial Pin League

Not a single bowler in five leagues was able to rack up an honor roll score last night on the Richland Recreation or Colony alleys

Top individual effort was a pair of 596 series by Carl Heilman and Emmett McIntire in the Commercial B league. McIntire put up games of 200, 186 and 210 for Ingram-Martin and Heilman posted 149-191-256 for Schroer's.

Biggest news was Yuncker's taking over of the loop lead. It had been tied with Dearman's Transportation but Dearman's dropped two to Oak Park Tavern while Yuncker's copped a pair from Rose Bowl Yuncker's had a 1024 single game and a 2824 total

Sammy Angott Bops Bryant In Second

In a semi-final middleweight bout Marion Klingensmith of Brownsville, Pa, knocked out Jackie MacFarland, also of Massillon.

Boxing 'Biz' Enmeshed In Big Turmoil

NEW YORK—(UP)—Joe Louis' proposed heavyweight title fight between Ezzard Charles and Jersey Joe Walcott seemed enmeshed in an "infernal triangle" today.

Harvey L Miller, executive secretary of the National Boxing association, announced at Washington last night that the NBA would support its commissioner, Abe J. Greene, in recognizing the bout as a title fight "provided that it is fought in an NBA state."

New York State is not a member of the NBA But late yesterday, Harry Mendel — director of publicity for Louis' new international boxing club — announced that Louis would stage the bout in New York City if the New York commission would change its mind and declare it a title fight.

LOSES LAST HOPE

Under the circumstances, it seemed certain that the Charles-Walcott scrap had lost its last hope of being an undisputed title battle. If Eagan's commission changed its mind — extremely unlikely — and gave recognition, the NBA would withdraw its sanction.

Meanwhile, from the third corner of the triangle came a disclosure that Mike Jacobs' 20th century club claimed an exclusive contract on Charles' services until next November Harry Markson, managing director of 20th century, said an injunction would be used, if necessary to prevent Charles from fighting Walcott for Louis in June

Jake Mintz — one of Charles' three managers — asserted that the 20th century contract would not stand up in court because Charles hadn't personally signed it

Mansfield Tire, Komito's, Shiloh American Legion and Plymouth White Front emerged victorious in the second set of Gold Medal tournament basketball games last night at Johnny Appleseed junior high gym.

Injured Hogan Under 'Knife' For Two Hours

EL PASO, TEX — (AP) — Plucky little Ben Hogan today had survived a two-hour operation to save his life. But the nation's foremost golfer will not be "up and about" for months

The operation was performed last night.

Dr. Alton Ochsner, the surgeon who flew here from New Orleans, relieved an abdominal blood clot. He was required to tie off the major vein that returns blood from the lower part of the body to the heart.

The Tulane university professor of surgery said Hogan should be over the effect of the operation in a week and "up and about" in a few months.

Dr. Ochsner said Hogan's condition was "very critical" Wednesday night and serious yesterday

Hogan was injured in an automobile-bus collision near Van Horn, Tex, last Feb. 2. He suffered a fractured pelvis, collar bone and ankle bone.

Fox Hunters Set Up Drive

Richland county fox hunters will be returing to old stamping grounds tomorrow when they launch a series of drives in the Little Washington area starting at 9 a m Hunters will meet at the Little Washington church

The six roundups will be run south and east of Valley road. Two years ago in this area the Richland group bagged 16 foxes

Boy Scouts will join the hunters tomorrow Any Scouts without transportation may leave at 8 30 a m from the courthouse. Tickets for the fox hunters banquet March 16 will be sold at the drive.

Illinois Sits Back In Big 9 Cage Race

CHICAGO — (INS) — Illinois' strato-scoring basketball company will attempt to sweat out the Western conference title tomorrow night by assiduously doing nothing at all

The Illini, already assured of a share of the championship, aren't scheduled for tomorrow—but Minnesota, the lone remaining menace to their plans, is. The Gophers play at Wisconsin, and, should Wisconsin manage to win this one, Illinois will be home free.

MAY PLAY MONDAY

If Minnesota wins, Illinois must defeat Michigan at Ann Arbor, Mich, next Monday night to secure the flag. The odds say Minnesota will win at Wisconsin tomorrow night, but the odds also say Illinois will triumph at Michigan

On a given night, fans claim, Illinois can bat the socks off anybody, and the way basketball goes they are probably right. Kentucky lost to St. Louis, which lost to Ohio State, which lost to Northwestern, which was beaten so badly by Illinois on two different occasions it looked list Lassie running against Citation

Veeck Tells His Side of Story

By LEO H. PETERSEN

SARASOTA FLA — (UP) — Now that he has heard Bill Veeck's side of the case baseball commissioner Albert B Chandler planned today to talk with the Birmingham Barons of the negro national league before settling the Veeck—George Weiss dispute over rookie signings.

General manager Weiss of the New York Yankees insists that he had an oral agreement with Barons' shortstop Artie Wilson who was signed to a contract by Veeck's Cleveland Indians

Veeck got his chance yesterday to tell Chandler his side of the feud It was reported that Chandler had a written brief from Weiss

In addition to discussing the case of Wilson Veeck also made a formal protest of his own against the Yankees' signing of negro outfielder Luis Marquez of the Homestead Grays Veeck said the Indians had a 120-day option on Marquez

Veeck flew in from Chicago yesterday and spent three hours in private with Chandler He stayed here last night and was scheduled to begin today a trip to the west coast where he will see holdout pitcher Bob Lemon

Veeck who was not summoned to see the commissioner—he came of his own choice to make his protest said he came for two reasons first to see what Weiss is popping off about and second to see if he has a right to pop off"

Meanwhile a host of minor changes were made in the playing rules of baseball by a rules committee meeting here And a three man sub-committee will be named by April 15 to rewrite and clarify all the rules

Here are the outstanding changes

1 When an intentional base on balls is being given the catcher must stay in the catcher's box until the ball leaves the pitcher's hand instead of walking up the baseline

2 A pitcher shall be charged with a balk if he stands in position to pitch without the ball or if he drops the ball while standing in position to pitch.

3 Calling the ball "dead" when a pitcher steps off the mound and drops the ball was made optional instead of mandatory, allowing an alert baserunner to advance a base

4 The so-called "claw" first-baseman's glove with plenty of webbing was outlawed for the 1950 season

Bellville Bows Out of District Tourney, 43-41

Field Goal In Final Minute Wins Game

By CHARLEY STINE

BUCYRUS—Class B basketball for Richland county came to an end last night as Bellville, county champ and last remaining survivor, bowed to Salem, 43-41, in a district tournament first round game.

It was the age-old story—a good big team beating a good little team. Both quintets put on a show of how a basketball should be handled, but when it came to taking the ball off the backboard, Salem had just a little too much size.

Actually a one-handed shot from the corner with 20 seconds to go by Forward Jim Stief spelled Bellville's defeat. The Blue Jays had trailed most of the way but tied up the count at 41-41 with a minute and a half to play.

FREEZES BALL

Salem froze the ball for 70 seconds and then Steif popped from the corner. Bellville got one shot but it fell off the mark and the game ended with Salem freezing the ball. It was its 24th victory in as many starts this season and established it as probable tournament victor.

Sandusky St. Mary's surprised in the opening game by outlasting Leesville 77-67 in a wild scoring battle. Leesville was Crawford county champs. New Washington, holder of a first round bye, makes its bow against Sycamore at 7:30 tonight while New Riegel goes against Attica at 8:45. Tomorrow, Forest meets St. Mary's and Salem takes on McComb.

TRAIL IN FIRST

The Blue Jays trailed 8-6 at the end of the first quarter and looked to be out of things as they fell behind 23-14 at half-time. They opened the second half with plenty of fire, however, and took its only lead at 28-27. Guard Bill Balliett scored seven of the 14 points in the drive.

Salem went ahead 29-27 on a pair of free throws and never relinquished the lead. The score was tied at 29-29 and 31-31. With three minutes to go Salem led 40-34 but Bellville made its bid and ripped in seven points in the next minute and a half. Balliett tied the count with a one-hander from the foul circle to set the stage for Stief's game-winning basket.

Indians Pitching Staff Is Best

By JOHN BARRINGTON

NEW YORK — (INS) — Generally speaking, Bill Veeck's approach to Major League baseball is as dissimilar to Connie Mack's as are Bill's sports shirts and the venerable Mr. Mack's high, stiff collars.

On one point, bowever, the Cleveland Indian president is Connie's bright-eyed disciple.

If Connie is correct in his long-standing assertion that pitching is 70 per cent of baseball success, then the Indians are 69.98 per cent of the way along the road to a second straight American League pennant and world championship

With two 20 game winners in Bob Lemon and Gene Bearden, plus Bob Feller who "slumped" to 19, plus such assorted spare parts as Steve Gromek, Satchel Paige, Sam Zoldak, Russ Christopher and Don Black, the Indians had the best pitching corps in the last year.

Veeck wasn't satisfied to sit in his wigwam and count his wampum belts During the offseason, he picked up Early Wynn and Frank Papish from Washington and Chicago, respectively. Neither had good years in '48, but both were playing with clubs that were scraping bottom in the pennant race.

None of the Indians' principal rivals of a year ago did as much as Veeck to strengthen their staffs.

Both the Yankees and Red Sox are banking on comebacks to give their pitching an added lift. Boston sorely needs a return to form by Tex Hughson, Dave Ferriss and-or Mickey Harris if it is to push the Indians as closely as in 1948.

The Yanks have pinned their hopes on Frank Shea and Reliefer Joe Page, both of whom flopped dismally last year and carried the club down with them. Fred Sanford, who lost 21 games for St. Louis last year, has been added.

Mack, who steered his Philadelphia A's home fourth in 1948, plays his cards close to the belt and is going into the current season with virtually last year's cast all over again. He has a strong corps with Lou Brissie, Dick Fowler, Charley Harris, Bill McCahan and Carl Scheib all comparative youngsters.

Detroit's Hal Newhouser racked up 21 victories last year, but other Tiger aces wound up with tarnished records.

The Browns and White Sox each picked up some notable prospects, both in the trading mart and via their farm systems. Trades brought the Browns Red Embree from the Yankees and Tom Ferrick from Washington. Chicago added Floyd Bevens from the Yanks and Walt Pierce From Detroit.

Washington parted with Wynn but added Joe Haynes, ex-White Soxer, and Specs Klieman, Cleveland relief artist. The Nats best hope still is that Sid Hudson, Walt Masterson and Rae Scarborough all can click at the same time.
